

Farms.com™

If you are exhibiting at CANADA'S FARM PROGRESS SHOW in Regina, Saskatchewan this year, Farms.com has an exceptional offer for you to promote your business or product.

VIDEO FEATURE & ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

For only $750 the Farms.com team will shoot a video news interview or product demo at work in your booth. The video will be shot, produced and hosted by us then promoted on Farms.com. It will be included in our e-newsletters, which are distributed throughout North America to over 35,000 subscribers and promoted through the Farms.com social media channel including twitter with over 95,000 followers.

The videos will remain on Farms.com for a year and are available for you the advertiser to use on your own site. Video features will be 2-5 minutes in length - ample time for you to share your message with our audience.

If video does not fit your advertising needs Farms.com has other great online and print advertising options to help get your message out to the Farming Community.
